

WINNING WITH AIG

Help when it matters most

Management Liability

Management Liability policies provide invaluable protection for a company and its directors and officers if claims arise. When those policies are called upon to provide cover for professional defence costs, representation costs or damages for a variety of actions, investigations and allegations, our adjusters are here to provide help and reassurance.

Our specialist Management Liability claims team handles thousands of claims a year, and we've dealt with all types of liability claims before, from the smallest claims to the very largest. We have expert Management Liability claims handlers across multiple offices worldwide and our global expertise means that no-one is better placed to guide our clients through their complex legal environments and often unpredictable international exposures.

Not only will we support you when you face a claim, but our knowledge of claims trends will help you formulate your own risk management strategies.

Giving you Confidence

We know that our insureds can face claims which are not only highly damaging to the company, but could also expose directors or officers personally and damage their reputation.

Our claims adjusters are used to dealing with difficult and sensitive claims and will provide solid guidance and facilitate access to the right advisers whatever the scenario.

Working in Partnership

We work in partnership with our clients and their brokers and encourage our clients to meet with our claims adjusters before they have a claim to establish positive relationships, to discuss common claims scenarios and to discuss the process in the event that a claim occurs.
