AIG appoints new AIG Life UK CEO

8 September 2015 – AIG in the UK today announced the appointment of Adam Winslow as CEO of AIG Life, subject to regulatory approval, effective from 1st September 2015. He will be based in London and will report to Federico Spagnoli, AIG Regional CEO EMEA Consumer.

Federico said, "We have big ambitions for AIG's Consumer division across EMEA and the Life operation is an essential element in helping us develop and maintain a compelling proposition to attract and retain customers.

"Adam's appointment will ensure continuity as we develop the business and together with his team he will be invaluable in helping us become more successful."

Adam Winslow commented, "I am very pleased to be taking up this role. AIG Life has a fantastic reputation for innovation and customer focus through the effective use of technology and high quality service. Our goal is to build on that expertise and knowhow. I'm looking forward to the challenges ahead."

Adam is moving from his role as Chief Operating Officer at AIG's Consumer division in the EMEA Region. Prior to that he was Executive Director, Distribution for AIG in the UK and before AIG he worked for Aviva as a Director of Strategic Partnerships.
