AIG expands Private Client Group to deliver a world class service

January 31, 2014 – AIG in the UK today announced the appointment of Wayne Knibbs as Business Development Manager in the Private Client Group (PCG).

John Sims, Head of Private Client Group at AIG said: “This is the next step in the process of ensuring that the PCG is one of the top tier High Net Worth insurers in the UK. Service is the cornerstone of our offering, and we are delighted that new talent is joining the team to add greater depth and breadth to our proposition. The team will be supported by the return to the team of Kate Wells as Customer Services Manager and the promotion of Rhiannon Holdham to Business Development Manager.

John Sims continued, “We are very excited by the tremendous potential for PCG in the High Net Worth market. AIG has been a leading player for ten years and, with a stronger team in place, we intend to enter our second decade with an expanded risk appetite, updated product offerings and more sophisticated pricing and marketing analytics as well as announcing new appointments in the near future.”

Wayne Knibbs
Business Development Manager

Wayne has a wealth of experience in both HNW household and motor as well as a strong background in yacht; both Super Yachts and less valuable vessels. Previously, he was a broker in the UK with Keelan Westall and E Coleman, as well as overseas experience with Eric Blair, a specialist HNW broker in Monaco, and Pantaenius one of the leading independent yacht brokers and MGAs based in Monaco.

Kate Wells
Customer Services Manager

Kate will be well known to many brokers in the market as she was previously in this role before taking an internal secondment. Prior to joining AIG in June 2007 Kate was managing a HNW worth team for HSBC Private Clients. Before that she ran the HNW team at Marsh Private Clients.

Rhiannon Holdham
Business Development Manager

Rhiannon has been promoted from an Assistant Underwriter role to the role of Business Development Manager. Prior to joining PCG Rhiannon spent four and a half years with the Jelf Group as a HNW Client Manager.
